COMING SOON: Mini-IPS awards	Science and Technology Facilities Council	27 Jan 16	Applications due between 1 December 2015 and 27 January 2016, between 1 April and 4 May 2016, and between 1 August and 7 September 2016.	Technology innovation/development, Research calls for business, Academic-Industry links, Networking/collaboration	£150,000	-	-	 The Science and Technology Facilities Council, under its innovation partnerships scheme, has issued a new deadline for its follow-on funding. Proposals are due between 1 December 2015 and 27 January 2016, between 1 April and 4 May 2016, and between 1 August and 7 September 2016. Particulars for the 2016 call are yet to be announced. The following information relates to the 2015 announcement. Funding provides financial support at the very early or pre-seed stage of turning research outputs into a commercial proposition. 	https://www.stfc.ac.uk/712.aspx
COMING SOON: Follow-on funding	Science and Technology Facilities Council	27 Jan 16	Applications due between 1 December 2015 and 27 January 2016, between 1 April and 4 May 2016, and between 1 August and 7 September 2016.	Technology innovation/development, Directed grants for individual investigators, Directed grants to institutions, research groups etc, Academic-Industry links	-	-	-	 The Science and Technology Facilities Council, under its innovation partnership scheme awards. Proposals are due between 1 December 2015 and 27 January 2016. Particulars for the 2016 call are yet to be announced. The following information relates to the 2015 announcement. The scheme supports the collaborative development of technology by UK universities and laboratories, CERN, the European Southern Observatory, UK industry and research sector organisations, and its transfer to the marketplace in partnership with industry and other academic disciplines. Awards are worth up to £150,000 per year.	http://www.stfc.ac.uk/funding/working-with-industry/commercialisation/follow-on-funding/
COMING SOON: Innovation partnership scheme awards	Science and Technology Facilities Council	27 Jan 16	Applications due between 1 December 2015 and 27 January 2016, between 1 April and 4 May 2016, and between 1 August and 7 September 2016.	Directed grants to institutions, research groups etc, Innovation grants, Academic-Industry links, Networking/collaboration	£450,000	-	-	 The Science and Technology Facilities Council has issued a new deadline for its astronomy research grants, which are now due between 2 November 2015 and 3 February 2016. The 2016 particulars of the call have not yet been confirmed. Grants support research in the areas of astronomy, cosmology, solar system science and certain aspects of particle astrophysics. Consolidated and consortium grants are available for up to three years with the possibility of a no-cost one-year extension. 	https://www.stfc.ac.uk/712.aspx
COMING SOON: Astronomy research grants	Science and Technology Facilities Council	03 Feb 16	Proposals due between 1 December 2015 and 3 February 2016. This call is repeated once a year.	Directed grants to institutions, research groups etc, Networking/collaboration	-	-	-	 The Science and Technology Facilities Council has issued a new deadline for applications for the theoretical round of its particle physics and particle astrophysics consolidated grants. Other call details for 2016 are yet to be confirmed. The information below refers to the 2015 call. This round considers proposals in the field of theoretical particle physics. 	http://www.stfc.ac.uk/research/astronomy-and-space-science/astronomy-research-grants
COMING SOON: Particle physics and particle astrophysics consolidated grants	Science and Technology Facilities Council	04 Feb 16	Proposals due between 2 November 2015 and 4 February 2016.	Travel for research purposes, Directed grants for individual investigators, Directed grants to institutions, research groups etc, Equipment and materials, Networking/collaboration	-	-	-	These enable UK investigators to access a range of astronomy facilities. Grants support travel and subsistence costs, and facilities are free at the point of access.	http://www.stfc.ac.uk/1541.aspx
Telescope time grants	Science and Technology Facilities Council	15 Mar 16	Deadlines on: 15 March 2016, 15 September 2016, and repeated annually.	Access to laboratories, telescopes etc., Travel for research purposes	-	-	-	These support travel and subsistence for observing trips. Travel and subsistence costs will be reimbursed at 100 per cent of costs.	http://www.stfc.ac.uk/1506
PATT linked travel and subsistence grants	Science and Technology Facilities Council	01 Apr 16 (Forecast)	!! Call has not yet been announced by funder, but this is the approximate deadline we expect. This call is repeated 2 times a year.	Travel for research purposes	-	-	-		http://www.stfc.ac.uk/funding/research-grants/funding-opportunities/applying-for-time-on-stfc-astronomy-facilities

Beam time access – ISIS	Science and Technology Facilities Council	16 Apr 16 (Forecast)	!! Call has not yet been announced by funder, but this is the approximate deadline we expect. This call is repeated 2 times a year.	Access to laboratories, telescopes etc.	-	-	-	Academic and industry researchers may apply for free access to neutron and muon instruments, provided by the ISIS Centre for Research in the Physical and Life Sciences, in order to investigate the properties of materials on the atomic scale. The instruments are free to use, provided results from experiments are published in the public domain. This supports small, local or pilot projects promoting science and technology. Awards range in size from £500 to £10,000 and may cover expenses for materials, salaries, travel and subsistence. These enable postdoctoral scientists to become independent research scientists and undertake research at an institution in the Republic of Ireland. Fellowships are tenable for five years and provide a basic salary, research expenses, overseas allowances, travel and subsistence costs and provision for public engagement costs. These enable postdoctoral scientists who wish to build their own UK-based independent research career to address an important biomedical question. Fellowships are tenable for five years in the first instance, with the potential to apply for competitive renewal for an additional three years. These support medical, dental, veterinary or clinical psychology graduates who wish to develop a long-term career in academic medicine. Fellowships normally provide a salary and research expenses for a period of two to three years, however in exceptional cases the funding period may be extended to four years. These enable UK biomedical scientists to develop their independent research careers. Awards are worth up to £100,000 each over two years. Funding covers research expenses, equipment, research assistance, travel costs for meetings and collaborations, but not personal salary costs. These support outstanding postdoctoral scientists based in academic institutions in the UK and the Republic of Ireland. Fellowships are tenable for five years in the first instance, and provide a basic salary, normally of up to £65,000 per year, with an additional trust supplement of £12,500 per year, research programme costs, inflation allowance and public engagement costs. These enable clinical investigators to further develop their research potential and to establish themselves as leading investigators in clinical academic medicine. Fellowships are tenable for five years and cover basic salary, research expenses, inflation allowance and public engagement costs. These support groups of independent researchers pursuing problems across the areas of science, medical humanities, society and ethics, and innovation. Awards are normally worth up to £4 million over a period of up to five years. These enable clinicians or scientists to conduct up to six months of full-time research at a centre or department with academic expertise in medical humanities to explore the wider determinants and contexts of their own medical and scientific work. Awards provide the salary of a locum or replacement lecturer for up to six months and a set amount for travel to conferences. These enable individuals at all stages of their careers, who are not in established academic posts, to undertake a period of research in medical history and humanities. Fellowships are tenable for up to three years. These enable researchers to develop a novel idea to a position where they could compete for a larger award from the trust or another funder. Awards typically range from £25,000 to £50,000 over six to 12 months, however proposals outside this time frame may be considered. These enable teams to tackle major health-related questions in the humanities and social sciences. Awards are normally worth up to £2 million over a period of up to five years, with most in the range of £1m to £1.5m. These enable teams to tackle major health-related questions in the humanities and social sciences. Awards are normally worth up to £2 million over a period of up to five years, with most in the range of £1m to £1.5m. These enable individuals who are not yet established in academic posts to undertake a period of postdoctoral research. Fellowships provide research expenses, appropriate employers' contributions and a salary, tenable for up to three years.	http://www.isis.stfc.ac.uk/apply-for-beamtime/apply-for-beamtime2117.html
